OUR NEXT MEETING IS THE HOLIDAY LUNCHEON!
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2025
11:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M.

HOLIDAY LUNCHEON (12/6)

Did you register to attend the holiday luncheon? If so, join us on Saturday, December 6, to celebrate the upcoming holiday season. Lunch will be barbecue and the party will include a silent auction and some fun and games! You have to be registered to attend the luncheon and registration has closed. Doors will open at 11:00 a.m. for some socialization prior to lunch, with lunch starting at noon.

RMBS will once again be donating jewelry to nonprofits that help women get employed after being in a shelter. Charities in prior years have included the Gateway Shelter and Family Tree, among others. Please keep in mind that many of the potential recipients are younger (late teens to late twenties). We ask that members donate new handmade jewelry. Jewelry sets such as earrings/bracelet, earrings/necklace and/or any combination are ideal but a single piece is fine as well. Please no costume or used jewelry. Don't forget to bring your donations to the holiday luncheon. Thank you to Rita Caldwell and Denise Leck for volunteering to oversee our donations this year.

We will have a new and fun activity for everyone to participate in and help raise funds for the RMBS – a Silent Auction. Kathleen Sloan has collected items donated by members for the auction and members will be able to place bids on those items during the luncheon. The auction will only happen in person at the Holiday Luncheon. Remember that this is the first time to try a silent auction and it is an experiment. If you've made a donation for the auction, be prepared for, and don't be sad or offended, if your donation gets no bids. Guidelines for the silent auction are:

- The donor will set a minimum bid that they would be comfortable having the item go for if it only gets one bid.

- A donor can set a “Buy It Now” price on their donation. Anyone will be allowed to jump the bid to that “Buy It Now” price at any time and the item will sell to that member for the “Buy It Now” price.
- There are no limitations on the value/minimum bid of an item. For example, if your donation is worth $10 and you set a minimum bid of $5 on it, that’s fine.
- There will be a bid sheet for each item. We will announce at the Luncheon when the bidding will start and close, and the highest bid will win!
- Bids should be in increments of $1 or more.
- Any RMBS member can donate an item, but you can only bid if you are at the Luncheon.
- Donations do not have to be bead or polymer clay related, though that would be welcome. Many of our members do other arts and crafts, or have skills such as making fabulous baked goods. (We have it on good authority that there will a knitted emotional support chicken donated!)
- You can donate an art, bead or jewelry piece you own that was made by another artist
- All items are “as is” with no guarantees or warranties.
- If an item receives no bids, the donor can donate it to RMBS for future fundraising purposes, or take it back after the Luncheon.
- We will accept cash, checks and credit cards (via Square) in payment for any silent auction items won. All proceeds will benefit the RMBS.

Finally, we will be saying farewell to Clare as president of the RMBS and welcoming Diane Roybal as the new president. The Holiday Luncheon will be Clare’s last official act as president, with Diane assuming all presidential duties in 2026!

POLYMER CLAY SIG

The last PCSIG meeting for 2025 was held on Saturday, November 22. Meetings will resume again in January 2026!

SHOWCASE DISPLAY AT LOWRY CONFERENCE CENTER

Have you checked out the showcase display at the Lowry Conference Center? Clare Pramuk and Bertha Adamson worked with Helen Littlejohn to update the display and include new signage. There is room for more members to share their work in the showcase. Items can be any medium and can be for sale or display only. If you have a piece or pieces you’d like to display, please bring to one of our meetings.

2026 PROGRAMS SCHEDULE

Tracy D’Angelo Knight has started planning for the 2026 meeting and workshops programs. If you have any suggestions for topics, playdates, workshops or instructors that you might like to see in 2026, please reach out to Tracy at programs@rockybeads.org.

You’ll want to save the date for the February meeting when our own Rita Caldwell will be teaching a class on how to incorporate bugle beads into your beadwork. More information regarding Rita’s class will be available in a special edition in December.

In addition, Bertha Adamson will be teaching a playdate at our April meeting on tips and tricks for successfully photographing your handcrafted items.

Returning events for 2026 include the UFO Challenge (throughout 2026), the Sampler (June 5, 6 and 7), the De-Stash (July 11) and the Trunk Show (October 17). If you think you have a project or technique you would like to teach to other members at the Sampler, start pulling together information now. A call for instructors will be issued in mid February!

2026 CHALLENGES

For 2026, we will have our third annual UFO Challenge. Do you have class projects, kits, components, beads . . . , that you've started or purchased prior to January 1, 2026. Now is the time to finish those projects! For each piece that you complete after January 1, your name will be entered into the drawing for prizes to be given at our November 2026 meeting.

We will also be having three mini-challenges in 2026. The theme for the first challenge will be announced at our February meeting with the pieces to be presented at our May meeting; in May for the pieces to be presented at our August meeting; and in August for the pieces to be presented at the November meeting. Any piece submitted for a mini-challenge must be completed between the announcement of the theme and the meeting when the pieces are presented for voting by members. If we continue to have good participation in the mini-challenges, prizes will be awarded to the three pieces receiving the most votes from members.

2026 SAMPLER

Do you have a project or technique that you would like to teach to other members? The Sampler will be June 5, 6 and 7, with up to four classes per session, so put your thinking caps on so that you will be ready to submit your application as an instructor when the call for instructors opens in March.
